Re: Wilhelm v. Katzman, et al., 23 Civ. 8515 (S.D.N.Y.)
Letter Motion to Adjourn Initial Conference

Dear Judge Cote,

My law firm represents plaintiff Andrew J. Wilhelm in the above-referenced action. I write to request an adjournment of the Initial Conference currently scheduled for December 1, 2023.

The reason for this adjournment is that I have plans to be travelling outside of the United States on December 1. I have conferred with counsel for all three defendants, i.e., Johanna Schmitt of Kirkland & Ellis on behalf of defendants Liza Katzman and Pomegranate Productions, LLC; and Matthew Clark of The WNET Group. They both consent to this adjournment.

In light of the coming winter holidays, all counsel are available on January 19 or January 26, 2024 to attend a rescheduled Initial Conference. As between those dates, Ms. Schmitt has indicated a preference for January 26, 2024.

This is plaintiff's first request to adjourn the Initial Conference date.

Respectfully submitted,

Jordan Fletcher
